

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI

STATE OF MISSOURI,

Plaintiff,

v.

JANET YELLEN, in her official capacity as Secretary of the Treasury; RICHARD DELMAR, in his official capacity as acting inspector general of the Department of the Treasury;
and U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY,

Defendants.

No. 4:21-cv-376

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE BRIEF OF AMICI CURIAE
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND NATIONAL FEDERATION OF INDEPENDENT BUSINESS
SMALL BUSINESS LEGAL CENTER SUPPORTING PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR A PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Pursuant to Rule 4.01 of the Local Rules of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America and National Federal of Independent Business Small Business Legal Center (together, “amici”) request leave to file a brief amici curiae in support of Plaintiff State of Missouri’s motion for a preliminary injunction (Dkt. No. 6). Plaintiff and Defendants have consented to this motion.

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America (the “Chamber”) is the world’s largest business federation. It represents approximately 300,000 direct members and indirectly represents the interests of more than three million companies and professional organizations of every size, in every industry sector, and from every region of the country. An important function of the Chamber is to represent the interests of its members in matters before Congress, the Executive Branch, and the courts. The National Federation of Independent Business (“NFIB”) is the Nation’s leading small business association, representing members in Washington, D.C., and all 50 state capitals. Founded in 1943 as a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization, NFIB’s mission is to promote and protect the rights of its members to own, operate, and grow their businesses. The NFIB Small Business Legal Center (“NFIB Legal Center”) is a nonprofit, public-interest law firm established to provide legal resources and be the voice for small businesses in the Nation’s courts through representation on issues of public interest affecting small businesses.

To fulfill their role as a voice for the business and small business communities, the Chamber and NFIB Legal Center regularly file amicus curiae briefs in cases that will impact their interests, and they have recently done so in litigation involving the same issue presented by Missouri’s motion for a preliminary injunction. See Br. of Amici Curiae Chamber of Commerce of the United States of Am. & NFIB Small Bus. Legal Center, Ohio v. Yellen, No. 1:21-cv-181 (S.D. Ohio Apr. 9, 2021).

Amici and their members have a strong interest in this case, as they are concerned that the tax mandate in the American Rescue Plan Act will prevent States from exercising their sovereign authority to tailor and implement their own tax policies, including those directly affecting businesses. Many States are considering or have recently passed legislation that promotes economic recovery by easing tax burdens on businesses of all kinds, including, especially, small businesses harmed by the COVID-19 pandemic. These policies and others may be stymied by the tax mandate’s prohibition on the use of federal funds to offset any decrease in a State’s tax revenue. Because the implications of the tax mandate for American businesses are severe, amici seek to represent the interests of their members in this Court with the attached brief. Amici believe that the analysis presented in their brief provides important context on the lack of constitutional authority for the tax mandate, as well as the expected practical effects of this provision on businesses across the Nation.

For the foregoing reasons, amici respectfully request that this Court grant leave for the filing of the accompanying amici curiae brief.

Respectfully submitted,
